VOCALIST · SOPRANO · COMPOSER

ONE SHEET / 2026

Alicia Waller

"Waller is a singular force, lyrically and compositionally."

IVANA NG · DOWNBEAT MAGAZINE

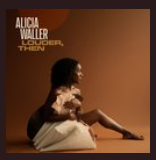

BIOGRAPHY

Alicia Waller is a genre-expanding vocalist, composer, and bandleader recognized for a contemporary fusion sound. Known for the luminous warmth of her voice, she creates a rich, expressive tapestry that has been praised for its splendor, creativity, and depth.

With a background as a classical soprano, Waller began exploring original work with the four-song EP, Some Hidden Treasure in 2020. Hailed as "surprising and significant" by All About Jazz, the imaginative release established her creative path at the intersection of jazz, soul, and vernacular music. She released her debut studio album, Louder, Then in 2026 to further acclaim, with DownBeat Magazine describing her as "a singular force, lyrically and compositionally."

She is a recipient of numerous awards and acknowledgements, and received her undergraduate degree in vocal performance from the University of Maryland and graduate degree from New York University, Gallatin School of Individualized Study. Soon after completing her graduate work, her work and process were featured in the documentary series What Moves You? by SkyHour.

ON RECORD

Louder, Then

Album · 2026

Listen Bandcamp

Some Hidden Treasure

EP · 2020

Listen Bandcamp

SELECTED STAGES

Jamboree

b-flat Jazz Club

The Kennedy Center

Museum of Modern Art

Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture

BRIC Arts Media House

AWARDS & SUPPORT

Chamber Music America · NYC Women's Fund · NYSCA · American Composers Forum · New Music USA · LMCC

contact@aliciawaller.com

Watch the reel Live calendar aliciawaller.com